Network Long-haul

Austrian network news

Mauritius (MRU)

In its winter timetable Austrian Airlines offers a new, long-haul holiday destination. From 29 October 2015, this island in the Indian Ocean will be served by direct flights from Vienna every Thursday.

Miami (MIA)

Starting on 16 October 2015, Austrian Airlines will fly non-stop from Vienna to Miami five times per week, thus expanding its range of tourist destinations.

Newark (EWR)

Since July 2014 Austrian Airlines has been flying to the largest city in the state of New Jersey. Newark is the hub of our Star Alliance partner United Airlines and will be served almost daily by Austrian in the summer timetable 2015.

Austrian long-haul Business Class cabin

In 2013 we modernised the cabins in our entire long-haul fleet:

- Elegant cabin design with the Austrian touch, Individual lighting – ‘mood lights’ – change the ambiance
- Comfortable seats turn into almost 2-metre-long, fully flat beds
- An innovative air-cushion system enables individual adjustment and integrated massage function brings even more relaxation

Austrian long-haul Business Class cabin

Functionality

- Seat can be adjusted using two clear panels with touch function, with numerous connection options for charging personal electronic devices
- Storage options such as laptop compartment, glasses rack, shoe compartment, etc.

Entertainment

- State-of-the-art in-flight entertainment system
- 15-inch high-definition flat screen with touch-screen operation with over 100 hours of video and audio entertainment individually controllable (on demand)

Austrian long-haul Business Class service

The Flying Restaurant

On board, the Flying Chefs refine sophisticated DO & CO Business Class menus. We attach great importance to our restaurant service, which consists of:

- soups and antipasti served from the trolley
- a choice of three main courses
- cheese and exotic fruit served from the trolley
- a variety of desserts

Austrian short- & medium-haul

In 2011 Austrian redesigned the cabin interior of its Airbus short- and medium-haul fleet. The integral component of the retrofit was the new 'Europe seat' from manufacturer Recaro which has the following features:

- lightweight (less fuel consumption)
- more legroom thanks to the slim seat construction
- breathable, high-quality leather

In Business Class the adjacent seat is marked 'Reserved for your comfort' and remains empty during the entire flight to provide more space and privacy.

DO & CO complements a perfect flight experience with a delicious multi-course gourmet meal.

Economy Class menus à la carte

A Wiener Schnitzel between New York and Vienna? A Bento Box on the flight to Amsterdam? A hot breakfast late at night? The exclusive DO & CO à la carte menus specially for Economy Class make it possible.

- Freshly prepared 3-course menus
- Excellent quality
- Orders cost only €15 per menu

Available online when booking at austrian.com, or up to 36 hours before departure at alacarte.doco.com

Last-minute orders

The DO & CO Last-minute Desk in Terminal 3 at Vienna Airport takes orders up to one hour before departure.
